

ECHO Partners AG is a strongly growing Swiss-based independent investment manager driven by an experienced and entrepreneurial team.

We enable investors to invest in a unique niche of the real estate universe: hotels in A-City/A-Location tourist destinations across Continental Europe.

To strengthen our entrepreneurial team

we are offering an

Off Cycle Internship (m/f/d)

Tasks

Supporting the senior team on the management of existing and the setup of new real estate funds:

- Drafting of investor, investment committee and board presentations
- Market research and analysis of hotels and transactions
- Set-up and preparation of financial models
- Direct support of the Chief Operating Officer on ad-hoc topics

Profile

Become a member of ECHO Partners, an entrepreneurial driven and dynamic platform with personal commitment:

We are requiring:

- Completed or in final stage university degree (BSc or MSc) preferably in Banking and Finance/Business Administration/Economics/Technical Studies/Real Estate with a very exceptional academic record
- Strong analytical and quantitative skills
- Previous work experience from internships in (Real Estate) Private Equity Funds/Investment Banking, Finance and/or Accounting
- Solid PC knowledge (especially: MS Excel, MS PowerPoint and MS Word)
- High degree of professionalism as well as strong drive and commitment
- Excellent oral and written command of English and German is a must
- Good communication skills and team player mind-set

We offer an exciting environment in a rapidly growing investment management firm with a strong acquisition pipeline across Continental Europe.

Please send your complete application documents (cover letter, resume, university and school diploma and employment certificates or references) including your possible start date via email to: jobs@echopartners.fund.