

ECHO Partners AG is a strongly growing Swiss-based independent investment manager driven by an experienced and entrepreneurial team.

We enable investors to invest in a unique niche of the real estate universe: hotels in A-City/A-Location tourist destinations across Continental Europe.

To strengthen our entrepreneurial team

we are looking for a

Transaction Manager (m/f/d)

Tasks

Direct reporting to the Head of Transactions of ECHO Partners AG with key focus on:

- Assisting in structuring and executing acquisitions and divestments in our target cities in Continental Europe
- Steering of law firms and other transaction advisors
- Direct involvement in negotiations and follow-up of transaction processes

Profile

Become a member of ECHO Partners, an entrepreneurially driven and dynamic platform with personal commitment.

We are requiring:

- Legal and/or economical background with a completed degree from a renowned university
- Experience in international M&A and/or real estate transactions is of advantage
- The ideal candidate will have spent some years in a law firm, real estate or corporate finance
- High degree of professionalism as well as strong drive and commitment
- Excellent oral and written command of English and German is a must
- Good communication skills and team player mind-set
- The candidate will be based in Zürich region or Vienna
- Readiness to travel regularly

We offer an exciting environment in a rapidly growing investment management firm with a strong acquisition pipeline across Continental Europe. ECHO Partners offers an attractive compensation package dependent on your experience and qualification, but not less than EUR 55,000 gross per year (all-in).

Please send your complete application documents (cover letter, resume, university and school diploma and employment certificates or references) including your possible start date via email to: jobs@echopartners.fund.
